Investment Objective

The Fund invests in private rented sector housing across the mainland UK regions and aims to capture UK house price growth plus provide an element of income return. The property investment manager, Hearthstone Asset Management Limited, uses quantitative asset allocation methods and qualitative regional stock selection to build a portfolio of assets reflecting the distribution of UK mainland housing stock. Properties are let under assured shorthold tenancies (AST's) and corporate lets. Investment returns comprise capital growth and rental income. The LSL Acadata House Price Index is used for the purpose of performance comparisons. < Please see below regarding the delayed publication of that index >

Property Investment Manager's commentary

As per the 19th July, triggered by a confirmation from CBRE in line with RICS guidance that the Material Valuation Uncertainty Clause for UK residential property can be removed, the Fund re-opened for dealing. Last month I talked about how the re-opening of estate agencies has led to increased demand - this has now been translated into actual deals, with agreed house sales 32% ahead of last year (according to Zoopla), and transactional data seemingly being boosted further by the recent SDLT holiday announcement by The Chancellor on 8th July 2020. Furthermore, Rightmove's research indicates that average asking prices of property coming to market in Britain hit a record, 2.4% higher than in March pre-lockdown, whilst the 3.7% annual rate of increase is the highest since December 2016. In a further sign of a return to normality, HM Land Registry started publishing transaction figures for the period of March to June. Based on that still limited dataset, LSL Acadata reported an annual house price change of + 0.9% to May 2020.

The Fund's July property valuation was up 0.21% on June's following more transactional evidence being available to the valuer, and the inclusion of the final two purchases at Smethwick contributing 0.04% of this uplift (the purchase of these and the previous eleven units have provided a total uplift of 0.06% due to the discounts we negotiated with the developer). The Fund's occupancy at the end of July was slightly down at c.89%, a net decrease in the number of occupied units of 7 due to a number of tenancies expiring at the end of the month and two new purchases. We expect these empty units to let quickly with the renewed activity and demand within the market. The Fund collected 102% of rent demanded in July, bringing the average rent collected over the period of the Fund's suspension to c.97.5%. We are continuing working very hard alongside our property managers Touchstone to help any tenants that have been impacted by Covid-19, setting up payment plans, deferring rent reviews and agreeing rent holidays where appropriate. It is encouraging that Tenants are starting to pay off their arrears, which we believe is a sign of confidence in the economy going forwards and their job stability. This really does demonstrate the resilience of residential property as an asset class.
