Investment Objective

The Fund invests in private rented sector housing across the mainland UK regions and aims to capture UK house price growth plus provide an element of income return. The property investment manager, Hearthstone Asset Management Limited, uses quantitative asset allocation methods and qualitative regional stock selection to build a portfolio of assets reflecting the distribution of UK mainland housing stock. These properties are let under assured shorthold tenancy agreements (AST's) and corporate lets. Investment returns comprise capital growth and rental income.

Property Investment Advisor's commentary

In an environment of significant market and political turbulence, the fund continued to deliver positive absolute returns over the last quarter of 2018.

Property transaction volumes across the UK remained subdued compared to historic averages, as many buyers and sellers are taking a "wait and see" approach. Despite that, our benchmark provider LSL Acadata reported the fifth month in a row of rising prices. Furthermore, regional variations continue to prevail - two thirds of local authorities reported annual growth, the strongest regions being the Midlands, Wales and the North West, reporting average annual price changes between 2.7 to 3.6%. Greater London continues to show the weakest results. The fund does not hold any properties in Prime London, and has added properties earlier this year in the Midlands with an acquisition of a cluster of homes in Nottingham.

In addition, rental income continues to prove a valuable source of return and we currently have an Occupancy ratio of just under 95% (in % of income). Rental income is strongly linked to wage growth, and employment in the UK remains strong.

Looking ahead, forecasts from the Treasury's December consensus survey point to continuing house price growth of 2.1% nationally for 2019. None of the 15 forecasters in the survey is predicting an overall decline, consistent with the fact that none is anticipating a recession. One factor remains consistent, and that is the continuing shortage of good quality housing in many locations. Figures from the NHBC show that housing starts and completions remain stuck at around 10,000 a month. The social housing sector is delivering around 3,000 per month, but the combined annual total of 150,000 falls well short of the Government's assessment of a need of between 250,000 and 300,000.

Also, typically, uncertainty fuels rental demand. This seems to be happening, but at the same time the supply of rented accommodation has been hit by a series of tax changes causing many small private landlords to retreat from the sector. This has created local supply shortages, which we expect to translate into rental growth. The RICS forecasts annualised rental growth of 3.1% over the next five years, whilst price growth projections stand at 2.3% on the same basis.
